“ Dear Gary, Brigitte, Angela, and all of Shawn's family:
Mike and I want to express our condolences and prayers for you in this great loss. I knew Gary from first grade on through high school in Carthage, and always appreciated the person he was. I am sure that if we had known Shawn, we would have thought just as highly of him. May God provide the strength and courage that you need in the coming days and months.##imported-begin##Mike and Kay (Birdwell) Asher##imported-end##

“ Shawn was one of a kind. Always making everyone laugh. You couldn't be around him and not have a great time. One of the nicest and most sincere persons we've known. There's no way to look back on our school days, especially highschool, and not remember Shawn. He will be missed but I am sure glad we were all the ones lucky enough to know him. Look forward to seeing him again one day. Our deepest sympathy and prayers to Angela, Samatha, Mr. and Mrs Hickey, and Ryan.##imported-begin##Todd & Stacie Malone##imported-end##
