“ We met in Dr. Mccutcheons waiting room through my father in law David Myers. I had a brain tumor removed the next day. My family is sending many prayers your way! Shelli was very lucky to have such a supportive family. And from the perspective of the person who is sick with a life threatening illness, I know she is so thankful for you. The love in your family was very obvious!

*Cheryl and David, you both have had my thoughts and prayers for a lengthy period of time. I have been a prayer warrior because of the frequent reports I have read. Please know that your faith strengthened so many because of the valiant fight Shelli and you have fought. You and your families will continue to be uplifted in prayer. An old hymn reminds me that we Christians are always "Safe in the Arms of Jesus."
