Liz, I enjoyed the picturesso much. I'm deeply sorry for your loss. We were such good friends in school and my daddy thought so much of you. I never hear anything or I would have come pay my respects. Your in my heart and certainly in my prayers. GOD will take care of.

Dear Liz, I love seeing this picture too. I miss our days together, but I'll never forget the day that Ted came out to the house with his horse and Adam wanted to ride. He told him to go get dressed so he could ride and he came out in his English riding habit. Ted looked at him, up and down, then said, "Well son, it takes all kinds of cowboys." Then he put him on the horse and Adam had the best time. I love you and you are in my thoughts and prayers. Much, much Love. Debbie Gruver

“ Liz and family,

I was sorry to read of Ted's passing, it's been quite a few years since I'd seen him but remember him and your dad Johnny working with my Grandfather, Travis Burgess.

Those were indeed "The Good Old Days!"

Our sympathies to you,
