“ Happy 43rd Birthday Love Bug. Today feels heavy, but I know Heaven is rejoicing with you. I know you're dancing with the angels today filling the sky with your bright light. Not a day goes by that I don't feel your presence. You are missed beyond words. Your life was a blessing and your love continues to guide me. I wish I could hug you and laugh with you again, but I hold our memories close to my heart. You are forever remembered with deep love, joy and cherished memories. Happy Heavenly Birthday my beautiful sister. I love you always monster...Mostest!!

“ To my Sister in Heaven on Christmas Day. My heart is full of memories of a sister laid to rest and every single one of them is filled with happiness. That's why this special message is sent to heaven above for the angels to take care of you and give you all my love. I miss you so very much and my tears I can't hide, but within my heart I know you are always by my side. I will never forget you and I know I have been blessed to have you for my sister because you were the best!! I love you beautiful baby cakes!! Merry Christmas up above and to all our loved ones surrounding you. We miss you all.

“ When you passed away I remember thinking why did it have to be you? Why? There are so many bad people in this world and they took one of the best souls I've ever known. I won't ever understand why. Some days it feels like it just happened yesterday. Others it feels impossibly distant and far away, but one thing I know to be true time moves so differently without you. I will always remember this day. The day the world held you for the last time. Before the light within you went out. Before we had to search our dreams and the stars just to see you again. This day will forever remain. The day your heart stilled, the day mine shattered and the day I learned that some pain never truly fades.

“ When I lost you nothing made sense after that. I kept opening my phone like I could still text you. I replayed old voicemails just to hear your voice and sometimes I press play just to cry. Your absence isn't quiet. It screams in the back of my mind while I'm trying to do normal things. I study your photos like they're crime scenes. As if I missed something. As if staring hard enough might change the ending. I'm not the same person I was before. There's a before you died version of me and then there's whatever this is. The grief doesn't ask for permission. It shows up when I'm laughing. It climbs into bed with me at 3 a.m. It reminds me you're still gone. Wish you were here, wish I could hear your voice, wish you didn't have to go so soon, wish life wasn't so unfair to you and wish I didn't have to spend the rest of my life missing you. If love could've saved you you'd still be here and I'd still be whole.

“ I just want you to know how much I miss you everyday and how much I love you so. I may not be able to send you a card, give you a hug or hear your sweet voice, but I can send my love upon the wings of Angels to Heaven up above. I will forever keep the memories of our special times together alive in my heart. Rest in peace my beautiful Angel. One day we will meet again and when that day comes I'll know it'll be forever. Happy Mother's Day in Heaven baby cakes you are forever in my heart.

“ I still remember the last time we were together. If I could only turn back the hands of time just to relive those happy moments with you again. You had so much life left to live. So many sunrises to wake up to, so many more memories to make, so much more love to receive and it will forever break my heart that you didn't get that time. I miss you baby cakes. Happy Heavenly Easter

“ Happy Heavenly Thanksgiving Sister
The day that God called your name it broke my heart in two, but Heaven needed an Angel and the one he picked was you. I just wish he could have waited and let you stay with me, but you have left memories in my heart and that's where they'll always be. I just wish I could rewind the clock or make it turn real slow so I could have hugged you one more time before you had to go. No matter how much time will pass I'll miss you everyday so keep shining bright in Heaven so you can light my way. I miss you more and more everyday baby cakes. I love you to the moon and back.

“ You gave no one a last farewell, nor ever said goodbye. You were gone before we knew it and only God knows why. A million times I will miss you, a million times I will cry. In my heart you hold a place no one else can ever fill. It broke my heart to lose you, but you didn't go alone, for apart of me went with you the day God took you home. I hold you close in memory even though we are apart. Your spirit will live forever within my broken heart. My heart still aches in sadness and secret tears still flow. For what it meant to lose you no one will ever know. In Heaven we shall meet again where farewell is never spoken. We shall clasp each other hand in hand and the clasp shall never be broken. I thank God he made you my cousin, sister, best friend while you were here on earth. I'll treasure my memories of you for evermore. You are loved beyond words, missed beyond measure and forever in my heart. I miss you now and always will. Love you mostest baby cakes.

“ I never know when I will miss you. I can't ever predict just what will grip my heart with the reminder that you are gone. It could be anything, anytime, anywhere, because I am reminded of you everywhere. I remember you are gone when I'm in a room full of people and I notice you are missing when I'm all alone. I feel your absence in joyful melodies and I hear your memory when the music is imbued with melancholy. You are everywhere and nowhere all at once. When the days are bright I am blinded by your presence and even when the world is dark I still manage to find you. In laughter I hear the echo of losing you. Your presence is overflowing in the tears that fall. Now that your body is gone everything holds your being. I miss you in the cold depths of winter and I long for you in the thick summer breeze. You are my first rising thought in the morning and my last notion as I sink into the heaviness of the night. I thought we ran out of moments together, but every moment seems to belong to you. How can you be everywhere when you are nowhere to be seen? I used to worry about facing the world because I didn't know what would trigger my heartache. I used to be afraid of every feeling, every memory, every moment because I didn't know which ones held you. Now I know you are everywhere and I think that I know why. You're everywhere because you're somewhere inside of who I am. I am the bearer of your life and your memory. I am the keeper of your existence. Even though you're gone I never really have to search for you. I never know where I'll find you, but you are always there. I never know when I will miss you because it happens all the time. I love you so much sister, but miss you even more.

“ Everyday I miss you and it still hurts just like the first day you gained your wings. A thousand words won't bring you back I know because I have tried and neither will a million tears I know because I have cried. I still look at pictures of you and cry. Losing you will never sit right with me. I miss and love you more than you will ever know sister.

“ The moment that you left me my heart split in two. One side filled with memories the other side died with you. I often lay awake at night when the world is fast asleep and take a walk down memory lane with tears upon my cheek. Remembering you is easy I do it everyday, but missing you is a heartache that never goes away. I hold you tightly within my heart and there you will remain. You see life has gone on without you, but will never be the same. This I know is true goodbyes are not forever. Goodbyes are not the end. They simply mean I'll miss you until we meet again.

“ The days are long, but the months move fast. I miss you every second. I wonder how long does this last? They say time heals, but I'm not sure that's true. I've waited so long, but I still desperately miss you. I think of you when I wake, morning, noon and night. I try to smile and not to cry, but it takes up all my might. When I close my eyes and go to sleep I hope that you'll be there, but then I wake and reality hits and I realize that life's not fair. We're lucky to have memories because I cherish them with all my heart. I think about them often so we're really never far apart. I miss you bunches sister.

“ I treasure every moment you spent in life with me. I hoped to have you longer, but it wasn't meant to be. You left this world so suddenly I think my heart went too. I feel so lost and lonely and I cry from missing you. I know you're in a better place. I know you're happy there. I know one day I'll join you, but the wait is hard to bear. My heart feels like it's breaking as I try to carry on. You were my life, best friend, sister, family, my everything, but now you have gone. I pray that God will give me strength until He calls me home. Then what joy will fill my heart when I'm again with you!! Missing you baby cakes...xoxoxo

“ Never have I dealt with anything more difficult than having to face each day without you being there in my life. I wake up every day just to miss you all over again. If only I could get one more phone call to know how happy you are up there and that you are truly at peace. Maybe you can tell me all about the beauty that surrounds you right now. About the people you were able to see again. That I have lots to look forward to when it's my turn and when I start to tell you what you are missing here I hope you say that you haven't missed a thing. “ Is there a party up in Heaven to celebrate today? Did angels frost a cake for you or sing to start your day? We're celebrating you down here as they must be above. I truly hope your special day is filled with peace and love. This day was always special as we gathered round you here. We'd sing and laugh and celebrate your day with so much cheer. I miss those special moments that we shared throughout the years. It's hard to find that on this day my eyes now fill with tears. I'm trying hard to smile for you, but ohhhh that empty chair. I turn around and find myself still shocked that you're not there. Please know I'm thinking of you as I go throughout each day. This day is very special though because it's your birthday. Happy Birthday in Heaven. YOU ARE LOVED! YOU ARE MISSED!! YOU ARE REMEMBERED!!! HAPPY 40th SISTER!!!!
