“ Shawn, so sorry hear about your mother. I was blessed to have met her and your father while working at Edward Jones. She was very extremely knowledgeable about the financial world and fun to visit with.

She loved you and Zackary very much .

“ I met Damon and Louise years ago when Damon and my husband Les worked for George Massey at the Sporting Goods store...They were wonderful people and I loved them both. We lost contact after they left Carthage. Damon, I am so sorry for your loss... I pray for comfort and peace for you and your children in the coming days.

“ She was an angel on earth. She was involved in taking care of my Mom through her kidney transplant and I will forever be grateful. Any time Aunt Tom was around she was awesome at telling us stories of when they grew up. She will be missed by all.

Louise was the most family oriented person I have ever met. Daddy said to her once that perhaps she was saved for a purpose. She took that to heart. We were always aware that she was the alpha sibling. She took care of us.

*Louise was not cheated in her time on this earth. She made the most of each day. Very competitive. She giggled when telling about Mama slipping her a few thousand bucks when she was the non-playing banker when we played monopoly. God speed, Sis. Good show!
