“ Truitt, I just learned of the passing of your son Troy and wanted to send you my deepest condolences and sympathies. I always had great respect for you and your entire family. My dad, D. La Grone and your dad Houston were very close friends for many, many years. I can only imagine the sadness and grief. Please know that I remember those days on Bus. No. 2 with you, Fan and Vera Belle so vividly. May the light of our Lord and Savior lead you steadily through these sad times and may His Grace, Mercy, Peace and Love abide with you and all the Stephens. Joe Ben La Grone

“ It seemed like his sister Trudy and I were adjoined at the hip. Whenever we would have an argument, Troy would get onto us about how good of freinds we were and we shouldn't let small stuff bother us.....we didn't fight alot but when we did we were very appreciative of the way he watched out for us. I haven't seen him in a long time but I will always and has always carried him in my heart. Fly high Troy and go fishing in heaven. Love you to the moon and back

“ We grew up together alot of rough times but more good times than bad. When I married his dad me and Troy would alternate cooking. When he'd peel a potatoe he would end up with a square potatoe, he'd lol at me cause I'd save every bit of that potatoe, I'd always tell him Troy quit wasting that potatoe peel it thin.... he loved playing with Josh, Jon Erik and Lawanya when they was little . Rest in peace Troy, see ya inside the gate.
