It's been our pleasure to know Olean and the family for almost 29 years. She was the most loving, generous lady! She was always so glad to visit, to share her life stories, and to share her awesome fig preserves! I don't know how the family will figure out life without her, but they will, as will the rest of the family who loved her so much. She's earned her angel wings, and she's safe in the arms of Jesus. It's all of us who are grieving. She is whole, healthy and as fiesty as ever now! Love you, family. Diane and Larry
