“ Aunt Bebo was a very special aunt to us girls. Having only a son, she loved having us spend days with her and Uncle Alvin during the summer. I loved staying with them because I could ride their horse! I remember that she would whisper little “secrets” to me, just to make me laugh. She would giggle like a little girl, too, at the idea of telling me a secret! She was a very sweet and precious aunt and she loved our mama and us girls as much as we loved her.
