“ I have so many happy memories of Wanda It's hard to post just one. I know she was the closest person to being my sister than anyone. We made each other laugh no matter how sad we were. She and I were laughing on the phone the Sunday before she passed. I love her with my whole heart and soul. And I miss her everyday. She was taken home to the lord too soon I feel the passing of her daughter candy tore Wanda heart to shreds I'm sure that's why she got sick. From a broken heart. I will see you soon Wanda. Thank know you're my guardian angel and I know you're watching and laughing at me now. REST IN PEACE MY SISTER ! You're a bright beautiful light ! And will remain forever in my heart

“ This world has lost and heaven gained one the sweetest ladies you could ever meet. Even though we are only 2nd cousins, Wanda told me time and time again she has always thought of me as a brother. She knew I felt the same. She, in many ways, was so much like our grandmother (Angie Bearden). Our grandparents loved her so much. I know she is happy now. She can visit with all her family that have gone before her. Our prayers are with Jane'a, Kenneth and all family members.

“ Wanda loved to laugh and loved making you laugh. I will miss the laughter she brought into the room. She was also a woman who cared about others and I know I will miss her deeply. I would get in from a late night travel and ask my sister. (Called Wanda and ask her to come over and lets play some games) She was unpredictable and so spontaneous you honestly never knew where the trip would lead you. Thank you ma'am for all the great memories that I have of you and the world has truly lost a good soul!
