“ Pat and Larry, I was so saddened to hear of Aunt Wanda’s passing, but she is at peace now and with Uncle Glen. My vision is all the Price brothers, mom, spouses, and Grandpa are setting at a big table in heaven eating, because that’s what they did when they got together, and waiting for the next one to get there. It’s a good feeling to know they are all together. Some of my best memories of Uncle Glen and Aunt Wanda coming to town is I wondered what car Uncle Glen would be driving and hearing about their travels. I would look the car over and ooh and aah, and Uncle Glen would throw me the keys and say “take her for a drive”. Oh my gosh, I was nervous as heck but I loved driving his cars. Sending our Hugs your way, you are in our thoughts and prayers.

“ *Pat and Larry,
We loved Aunt Wanda. There are so many memories. I remember my mom, Flossie talking about how much she enjoyed going to visit her brother Glenn and Wanda, she really enjoyed the visits. Anna and I always looked forward to the family reunions especially if Uncle Glenn and Aunt Wanda were going to be there. When my daughter Michelle was a little girl she was fascinated with a small clutch bag that was covered in colored stones, she talked about that bag for years. We all liked to hear Larry share stories of growing up and all the camping and traveling they did. It is so hard to let go and move forward but oh what memories we have of the good old days. All of us here in Missouri are holding you close and keeping you in our prayers.*
