

Mrs. Winnie Pearl Haney

April 30, 1914 - April 8, 2014

Winnie Pearl Carter Haney passed from this life and into the arms of her Savior on Tuesday, April 8, 2014, in Longview, Texas, at the age of ninety-nine years, eleven months, and eight days. She was born April 30, 1914, to Allen D. Carter and Sarah Virginia Adams Carter in Kemp, Texas, located in Kaufman County. Most of her life was spent in Panola County but she had lived in Longview, Texas, for twenty-six years at the time of her death. Winnie Carter was married to Cleveland Harrison Haney on August 26, 1928. Together they shared sixty-six years of marriage before he preceded her in death in 1994.

Mrs. Haney spent her life as a devoted wife and the loving mother of four children. She enjoyed crocheting, quilting, growing flowers in her yard, and having all her family together for any occasion. She was of the Baptist faith and was a member of Spring Hill First Baptist Church in Longview.

Mrs. Haney was preceded in death by her husband, one daughter, Dovie Jo McDaniel and son-in-law, Harvey; one son, Carol Jack Haney and wife Charlette; son-in-law, Joe Hudman; granddaughter, Sandra Kay Hudman; two great grandsons, Eric McDaniel and Robert Hodges; and one great, great, granddaughter, Alyssia Poss.

Those children left to cherish her memory are one daughter, Betty Sue Hudman of Longview and one son, Allen Glenn Haney and his wife, Margaret, also of Longview.

Mrs. Haney is survived by eleven grandchildren: JoAnn Swindull and husband

Mickey of Silver Spring, Maryland; Linda Neely and husband Kenneth of Athens, Texas; Jerry McDaniel, Ty McDaniel and wife Lori of Carthage, Texas; Wayne Haney and wife Leslie of Longview, Texas; Greg Haney and wife Stephanie of Richardson, Texas; Melinda Whitehurst and husband Larry, Jane Hughes and husband Tommy, Cindy Adams and husband Matt all of Longview, Texas; David Haney and wife Pam of White Oak, Texas and Toni Hall of Hallsville, Texas.

“Mammie” Haney also leaves behind twenty-nine great grandchildren, thirty-five great, great grandchildren and one great, great, great grandchild.

Funeral services for Mrs. Winnie Haney will be held at Hawthorne Funeral Home in Carthage, Texas, on Thursday, April 10, 2014, at 2:00 P.M. with the Reverend Wayne Spanhanks officiating. Following the service, she will be laid to rest beside her husband, Cleve, at the Antioch Cemetery in Carthage, Texas. Visitation will be held at the Funeral Home on Wednesday, April 9, 2014, from 6:00 P.M. to 8:00 P.M.

Pallbearers for the funeral will include Shane Whitehurst, Jeremy Whitehurst, David Haney, Greg Haney, Steven Ivy, and Jonathan Hodges.

The family of Mrs. Haney wishes to express our sincere appreciation to Dr. Rangu, the nurses and staff of Highland Pines Nursing Home, and the caregivers from Texas Home Health Hospice.

“ We still love, and miss you precious ❤️ "mammie" You're now joined by all of your four children, our Uncle Glenn, Aunt Jo, my precious mother, Betty Sue Haney Hudman, and Uncle Buddy(Carrol Jack), I know you are so happy in heaven to have them all with you. Please give my love to all of them. Please give my love to my sister, Sandra, and my very precious baby boy, James Jason Mackey. I know now unfortunately how you must have felt losing each of your children.
It's now been five years since Jason was called home way too early.
Jason#Forever#32. Please give my love to our precious granddaughter, Alyssia Jolie Poss(Sissy), my precious nephew, Robert Avery Hodges, Jr. You have a full circle now. I know you must be so happy to have them all with you.
We miss your famous cooking, especially the Coconut Cake, and Cocunut Pie. Oh, and we can't forget those yummy chicken, and dumplings. I can't say enough about your delicious meals that you always made.
We miss your laughter, your funny jokes, your loving arms, your awesome attitude, your gratitude that you always gave for any little thing that anyone ever did for you.
I remember riding you in my mustang on the way to our family get togethers. I wish I would have remembered to take your picture in that Stang. It was such a privilege to do that for you.
Please give my Pappy a big happy birthday tomorrow, April 7th from all of us down here still. We miss him too!! He was quite a character.
Our funny little "Pappy" I know y'all are so happy together again.
I know this is an early post before your "heavenly" birthday coming up on the eighth
We can't wait to see you, and all our many loved ones that are there with you now. Jesus has our "homegoing" already set. I can honestly I am anxious to get there.
We hear what a beautiful place Heaven is. We hear this side of Heaven of how great it must be to sit there at our sweet Jesus' feet.
Many this side of Heaven still need to experience what's like to come to know Jesus as their personal "Savior" 🙏🏻🙌🏻🌟 Just keep them, and all of us in your prayers!! There is nothing like having a relationship with sweet Jesus. So thankful for my precious mother for leading me to Christ whenever I was just a child at 9, and half years old. I will never forget how my poor mother struggled with her health right after I was born (soon to be 66 years) No matter how bad her health she always made sure that her four daughters were in church. I can never thank her enough. She had a strong faith, and that is what kept her with me, and my sister, Melinda, Jane, and myself for almost 87 years. We really miss her. 🥹 Just happy that she is in no more in pain or suffering. That's what brings me peace. Well, I know this is probably the longest message I have ever written in your honor. Looking forward in seeing whenever Jesus calls my name. I think I have to stay awhile longer so I can be that testimony that Jesus has given me. I have a mission to lead others to the Lord. So that's what I am going to do more. Again, we all love, and miss you!! Stay sweet.

“ I am so sorry for the loss of Aunt Winnie. She was a very special lady. I always admired her class and perpetual youth (maybe 100 would have hindered that). Her memory will never fade. Sorry I can't be there to honor and celebrate her homegoing this afternoon. Hugs to all.

“ Mammie,
It just doesn't seem real that you are really gone forever. I have such good memories of you. I still remember the time that Sandra and I stayed overnight with pappy and you. You were the one that taught us to put sugar in our biscuits. You were one hard working woman. You were the one of the best cooks around. I remember those delicious pies you made. Your coconut cake was so yummy. I bet you made pappy a birthday cake in heaven. I know pappy must have been so excited whenever you joined him in heaven. I bet there was such a great welcome with all those that love you. Everyone always loved our sweet mammie. I am looking forward to seeing you again in heaven. One thing that always concerns me when someone passes away is whether or not they were saved. I am so happy knowing that you are. R.I.P. mammie!!! I will always hold you dear in my heart. Oh, thanks for giving me my naturally curly and wavy hair. I love you with every breath I have. You will be missed deeply.

“ Mammie,

It is hard to believe you are physically gone but I know you are still with us in spirit. I know you are probably rejoicing in Heaven right now playing your Harmonica with my sweet Pappy and many other loved ones that we miss dearly. I will always cherish every precious memory I was given and made by you. As my heart is torn I know you are in a better place with no more suffering or pain. I can't wait until one day when I have kids of my own I can tell them about my great grandmother who lived to be 99 years old. You lived an amazing life and I am so blessed to be your great granddaughter. I am truly going to miss you Mammie. Rest in peace my sweet Mammie.

*Love always & forever,
Your great granddaughter
